Bambinos class

The bambinos have been busy exploring different sensory play activities and enjoying a variety of hands-on experiences. Through sensory play, learners developed their fine motor skills, curiosity, and creativity while engaging their senses in a fun and meaningful way.

Beetles Class

As the Beetles class continues to grow and move forward, we are excited to see their development, abilities, and confidence blossom each day. Through sensory activities and free play, the learners are becoming more curious and engaged, discovering new ideas and skills while learning through play.
